Directions to the Vermont History Center

From the North:

- Get off of Interstate 89 at Exit 7.
- Take Route 62 through two sets of lights and move into the left lane.
- Go through the third light. At the split, bear left, following Route 62 toward Barre and toward Route 302 East.
- Go down a long hill and through one traffic light. Get in the right lane.
- At the next traffic light turn right onto Route 302 East.
- Travel through downtown Barre; continue following 302 East through the complicated Y-intersection.
- You should see the Vermont History Center straight ahead of you and a little to the left. It is in the imposing brick Spaulding school building.

From the South:

- Get off of Interstate 89 at Exit 6.
- Take Route 63 east down a long hill.
- At the bottom of the hill turn left on Route 14 North
- Travel through downtown Barre; opposite the Post Office turn left onto Route 302 East
- You should see the Vermont History Center straight ahead of you and a little to the left. It is in the imposing brick Spaulding school building.

Parking:

- Turn left onto Academy Street in front of the statue of Robert Burns.
- You can park on Academy Street and walk to the Vermont History Center, or continue driving to Mount Street, where you should turn right.
- Turn right again onto Washington Street. The Vermont History Center is on your right.
- You can park on the street heading west on Route 302 toward downtown Barre; there is handicapped parking next to the building off of Washington Street.
